Fees (1 January 2008/2009)

Treatment	Licence Fee	Licence Renewal	Variation*	Transfer
Band A - low risk and non-invasive treatments, including manicure, pedicure, ear & nose piercing using a single pierce gun designed for the purpose	£155	£140	£40	£40
Band B – medium risk non-invasive treatments, including some beauty treatments and therapeutic treatments, head, neck & below the knee massage, and sunbeds	£290	£260	£70	£70
Band C - higher risk or invasive treatments, including body massage (other than described in Band B), electrolysis, chiropody, acupuncture, saunas, tattooing and body piercing	£370	£335	£105	£105
Laser and intense pulsed light (IPL) treatments	£540 (additional to the band fee)	£540 (additional to the band fee)	£540 (additional to the band fee)	£540 (additional to the band fee)

Please make cheques payable to London Borough of Barnet.
If in doubt about the correct fee, please contact us for assistance.

If there is more than one treatment, the treatment that falls in the highest band determines the fee. Only one fee is payable however many different treatments are offered, unless laser or IPL treatments are included, in which case the laser/IPL fee is added to the band fee. If only laser/IPL treatment is offered, there is no band fee.

- * A variation is any single material change, such as an additional treatment, a new practitioner or a significant change to the premises layout. A variation fee is charged for each separate variation. In addition to the basic variation fee(s), if the variation is to a higher band, for example from band A to band B, an additional fee will be payable. This is calculated as follows:

Take the difference between the licence fees for the two bands, multiply by the number of complete months still to run on the existing licence, and divide by 12.

For example, adding a sunbed to a licence for manicure 9 months before expiry.

Band B (£290) minus Band A (£155) = £135. Multiply by 9 = £1215.
Divide by 12 = £101.25.

Add to the band A variation fee (£40).

The variation fee in this example is £141.25.

A transfer is a change to a different licence holder, with no other material change.

If there are other changes, variation fee(s) will be charged in addition to the transfer.

If there are a number of changes, we may deem the licence to be a new one, for which the single new licence fee is charged.

Our Policy

Our aims are to ensure that only bona fide businesses are licensed to give special treatments, and that they do not cause unacceptable risk to health and safety.

We want our enforcement activities to be fair. We know that most businesses want to operate within the law, and we do not want to penalise people who are doing their best.

We therefore make a promise to people who we can see are prepared to make an effort to comply with the law. If we find a problem, only in exceptional circumstances will we resort to immediate enforcement action. We will reserve prosecution for occasions when it is in the public interest, for example because the offence or the outcome has been particularly serious. The Council has adopted the Enforcement Concordat, and we have an Enforcement Policy to guide our enforcement decisions. Anyone can see these documents on request. Our officers work in accordance with detailed procedures that set standards for the action they take. We also have a complaint procedure. If you are aggrieved by our actions please let us know and your complaint will be investigated.

To carry out our work as a licensing and health and safety enforcing authority we have properly appointed Inspectors, with the right of entry to business premises. We investigate complaints about unsafe or unhygienic businesses. We also carry out a program of planned inspections, prioritised according to our assessment of the risk at each premises. When assessing risk we take into account not only factors such as the nature of the work carried on and the number of people who may be exposed to the risks, but also the standard of compliance with health and safety and employee welfare law, and our confidence in the business's ability to maintain proper standards.

You are expected to be aware of potential hazards connected with your business, and assess the risks that may arise to identify any precautions you may have to take. There is plenty of guidance available to help you do this, and you can contact us for information and advice.

Regulations and licence conditions

The Council has made regulations that deal with the licence application process and the way in which applications are determined, and set certain conditions that the licence holder must comply with. It is an offence not to do so.
