BARNET'S YOUNG COMMISSIONERS PROGRAMME

UPSKILL, INTERACT
AND HAVE A SAY!

What is the Young Commissioners Programme?

Young Commissioners is a 9-month programme where you get to work with Barnet Council's professional commissioners to help design services for young people, achieve AQA certificates and gain skills for the future.

What are commissioners?

Commissioners help decide what services are available to young people in Barnet. They are in charge of deciding how these services are run, and who runs them. They design services and contracts, engaging with families to provide the support they need.

WHAT WILL YOU NEED?

- To live in or go to secondary school in Barnet
- To be able to spend an hour and a half every two weeks, virtually or in person, to participate in the programme
- To want to make a difference

WHAT WILL YOU BE DOING?

- Working with professional commissioners
- Helping to design services
- Leading and designing engagement projects
- Sitting on interview panels and helping to judge service providers

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- You'll achieve three AQA unit awards
- Valuable work experience and skills for your CV
- References from professionals for job, college, or university applications
- Skills for life
